Data Protection: Open DAW is committed to respecting privacy of all users of the Open DAW website and in all other communications with Open DAW. We have a privacy policy on our website and can provide a printed copy for you. As a supporter we ask for your name, address and contact details so we can send you regular newsletters and so you can decide when we review the scheme annually if you still wish to continue to be a member.

We also use your details when we are claiming gift aid back through HMRC on your donation to Open DAW. When completing our supporter forms your bank details are only known by you as you pass them to your bank for a standing order. You can stop being a member of the scheme at any time.
